West Bengal

Syllabus for LL.M.

(Master of Laws)

[w.e.f. 2025-26]

Preamble

The Post-Graduate programme in Law (LL.M.) at Vidyasagar University is designed to provide an advanced and comprehensive understanding of legal principles, jurisprudence, and contemporary issues in national and international law. The programme emphasizes specialized study in two areas including Criminal Law and Business Law. Through a balanced integration of theory, practice, and research, the LL.M. course aims to cultivate critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and ethical responsibility among students pursuing higher legal education.

To promote academic flexibility and interdisciplinary learning, the curriculum includes a range of elective papers that allow students to tailor their academic path according to their interests and career goals. In addition, courses on the Indian Knowledge System (IKS), Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), and the Life and Philosophy of Pandit Iswar Chandra Vidyasagar have been introduced to foster holistic education and a deeper appreciation of India's intellectual heritage and reformist ideals.

The two-year LL.M. programme has been introduced to strengthen postgraduate legal education at Vidyasagar University, ensuring alignment with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and the Choice-Based Credit System (CBCS). The curriculum has been carefully structured to meet the standards of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and to prepare students for academic, judicial, administrative, and professional careers in law.

In addition to rigorous classroom learning, the programme integrates seminars, research projects, field studies, internships, and community engagement, encouraging students to bridge the gap between legal theory and real-world application. The Dissertation component, undertaken in the final semester, enables learners to engage in independent and original research under the guidance of experienced faculty members.

The Department of Law is equipped with good academic infrastructure, Library and access to a wide range of online legal databases and journals. A team of highly qualified and dedicated faculty members ensures that students receive both academic mentorship and professional guidance. The department also promotes research through workshops, conferences, and collaborative initiatives with legal institutions and governmental bodies.

The thrust areas of research in the department include Constitutional Law and Governance, Human Rights and Gender Justice, Environmental Law, Intellectual Property Law, and Criminal Justice Administration, reflecting the university's commitment to advancing legal scholarship, social justice, and the rule of law.

PROGRAMME OUTLINES
